(Bolan is powdering her nose by the worklight). Unde Sam (To Henery) Is that aproject - I hope? Henery I'd better look it up - (He thumbs through the book) Uncle Sam (Over to Bolan) Young lady - are you a project? Bolan Of course I am - this is the Federal Theatre! Uncle Sam 0 -o - oh -- the Foderal Theatre! Yes, I've heard about you from Mr. Dies. Henery Well, it's not in the book -Uncle Sam Oh, damn the book! (He looks around with great interest) Say this is wonderful. How did this Federal Theatre start?

OPENING

In 1935 there were a lot of Actors and Musicians
To say nothing of stage hands. Costume designers.
Sconic artists and electricians
There were also two guys with accordions
But the trouble with the whole darn thing was this
There wasn't any audience. (All)
So, a couple of lads in Washington had a bright idea
And they went out and leased an auditorium
And the first thing you know there was "Murder in the Cathedral"
Macbeth
Faustus
Power
Haiti
Pinocchio
We got four stars for "Prologue to Glory"
Of course, there was Hero was Born and Trojan Incident
And dot dot one-third of a nation dot dot dot
But remember those two guys with accordions?

They were awfully sad

They couldn't play Lincoln or Senator Norris

Or the Archbishop of Canterbury

They didn't have anything to do at all

So. (All)

We decided to do a Musical

To the Guys who thought up that one went a prize

But before they had it written

And rehearsed (Ruskin)

and composed (All)

and rehearsed (Ruskin)

and conceived (All)

and rehearsed (Ruskin)

and assembled (All)

and rehearsed (Ruskin)

and designed (all)

and re-written (Ruskin)

and costumed (All)

and okayed (Ruskin)

and directed (All)

and rehearsed (Ruskin)

and scored (All)

and approved (Ruskin)

and staged (All)

Let's go home (Ruskin)

and lit (All)

and investigated (Ruskin) and rehearsed and rehearsed and rehearsed (All) Those two accordion players were snatched up by private enterprise So we haven't any accordions Well, you've got to be philosophical About things like that

In times like these

In spite of all the lengthy rehearsing In spite of all the shouting and cursing In spite of all the grudges we're nursing We're up to here in props and cues and lights and drops and though it's most surprising the curtain is really rising

(All) Sing for your supper Do your bumps and your boundes Lose superflucus ounces

Sing a rhyme

Or do a time stop

Sing for your supper

Hear the strings and the brass play Do your labor or class play

To the swing of the band

Lot's forsake the drama stark

And the Actors in black velvets

Now from mina nine o'clock to twelve its

Song and Dance

LEGITIMATE

I dreamed of the stage at the earliest age When still just a baby at home I dressed up in pieces of Ma's old chemises And say a poem I said "Papa, I want to be legitimate" He said, "What kind of talk is that?" I told my dear Mama I've got to do drama Because I've reached the legitimate age And I Just have to have the legitimate stage I simply have to be legitimate So I went to dramatic academy Where I learned how to bellow and chirp And to act like a floosie Or Eleanor Duse And just how is a duchess would birp I started to be legitimate that way But boy did I flop! and I tried out for a part As I ran the gamut The producer said "Damn it!" She's pretty, but is it art?" So I cried a black curse on Equity And a pox on that first night thrill If that dammed Actors union Won't give me communion Some other union will. I never will be legitimate So I packed up my Shakespeare and Thackeray And landed a job in a fackery Burnt my poor little unused makeup kit Made ladies' garments woollen knit And instead of a matinee hero I loved my factory foreman A Mr. Shapiro. I was startled to find a bit later that the job had a little theater We discussed as we sewed And made pinticks the George Abbotts and Guthrie McClintocks At lunch time no time for romancing Graham crackers and then Graham dancing And Mr. Shapiro My hero Was an expert on Arthur Pinero. I sewed garters to strains of Tchateron whe Cut pants to the balcony scene Stitched girdles a la Stanislawski With a spotlight above my machine So hard would I persevere I was raised to the uplift brassiere And soon I played ingenue In the garment workers review.

After giving up Ziegfeld and Minsky I was glorified by Dubinsky. The critics said I was terrific They don't think I have any faults They write that I'm worthy Of being called earthy And some call me La Divine Schmalz At last I'm on top place in wonderful dramas And all I can say is The actresses way is not agents But knitting pajamas Just like all those girls in the movies I end up the star of the cast Though the technique I have mastered You folks may call -- unusual Thank God I'm legitimate at last.

This is a number for the Modern Ballet. The Dance begins in a lyrical Viennese Waltz tradition. Towards the close, a sinister figure arises from the pit. The Dance becomes paralyzed. All the galety and lyricism departs, and it ends with the Male Dancers marching off stage in military fashion, behind the sinister figure.

PAPA'S GOS A JOB

(As the curtain goes up the orchestra music blends into that of a plano heard far in the distance. It is a summer evening. Grouped around furniture that is standing in the middle of the street there is a family. This family has been evicted for non-payment of rent. After a count of five, a bundle is thrown out a door. The Elder Cister runs forward, picks up the bundle and carries it back and puts it with the rest of the possessions. The Landlord who is behind the door makes a check in a book he is carrying. The door opens and the Holper cones out carrying a chair which he puts down with the rest of the furniture and goes back to the house.)

ADLORD Is that all?

į

LPER That's all.

NDLORD All right, clean it up and 'phone the agent so he can rent it right now.

(HELPER leaves)

OTHER (who has moved ovor and is sitting in the chair) Couldn't he have waited just a little while longer?

founder SISTER (coming toward the LANDLORD) You can't put us out into the street like this.

NEIGEBORE (some of these melthors are at windows and others have been standing in the streat wateling the eviction. At this point they move toward the LAULEE. Their conversation is Ad lib.)

FIRST MEIGHBOR Give him a little while longer Mister!

SCOND ENIGREDOR They're honest, decent folks, they'd pay if they could.

THIRD NEIGHBOR Maybe (LANDLORD breaks in)

LANDLORD Yeah, maybe. This sign is going up right now.

(The plane rusic resumes in the distance and the crowd slowly disappear into their various homes.)

(LANDLORD comes down to the mother. This Landlord is by no means a Simon Legree. His is sympathetic and kindly.)

LANDLORD I'm sorry lady, but I have get to pay taxes and I can't pay them with empty spartments. I've get to get along the same as you and there is nothing else I can do. (He leaves)

> (A neighboring SHORTINGPER comes on hurriedly from stage loft. He motions for TRUDY who goes to him. He speaks under his breath) concrementary Hob Trudy, someone wante to talk to you about your Old Man.

"PERSPIRATION"

ANNOUNCER

(Appearing before curtain) Ladies and gentlemen, for the past year over at the Mercury Theatre, Mr. Orson Welles and his Merry Men have been putting the theatre through a strip tease. Others have followed his lead, and we have seen a stream of productions done without scenery, without professional actors, without orchestra, and in some cases without audiences. It is with this last in mind that we are presenting the ultimate social opera, written by one of our WPA composers, Mr. Marmaduke Schnock. It all came to him in a dream, and he arose and wrote it down on the back of a 14th Street crosstown transfer. Mr. Schnock called his opus, Sweat. There is no censorship on WPA. The new title is "Perspiration". We thank you.

> (A Picket walks across in a spot, saying Act One. There is a roll of drums and the curtain rises on a completely bare stage. Sixteen stagehands push on a piano, six more bring on a piano stool. Exeunt. Enter Mr. Schnock, the composer. He whistles piercingly)

Hey, fellers, come on COMPOSITIENE curtain's up. The principals enter and stand left. Placards are lowered, over each section Over the Principals; Bill Smokestack, a worker in a buttonhole factory ... Will and Bessie, also buttons and buttonhole workers.. Mr. Zipper a union organizer. Over the Composer, a sign saying Composer. They are drawn up again)

Folks, imagine that you are in Struggle town. Oh, don't just sit there-- go on, imagine it. Those are the walls, that is the ground, that is the sky. Get it? The sky is groy, with probably thundershowers later. The Company union are standing around the yeards, discussing life.

AHNOUNCE FOR EKETCH

A controvorsy about "PA jokes has arisen in the news lately. Should they be allowed to die a natural death, or should they be perpetuated as a remarkable new trend in American humor?

We, of the Federal Theatre, feel that if the WPA joke is to die, we certainly should have the right to arrange for the funeral.

So, ladies and gentlemen, with your kind permission, we will now put a few of the current favorities to rest.

See of the second

We're not plain every day boys Oh no, not we -We are the leisurely playboys Of industry These famous little WPA boys Of Franklin D. The Republicans insist we're gay deceivers Their angor is so terrific While the other workers slave away like beavers They say we're mersly -- soporific So tonight you can steet us As we're seen in the G.O.P. prospectus ---- Here we stand asleep all day While P.D. shoes the flies away We just wake up to get our pay What for? For leaning on a shovel ....

In the forest the C C C Is also snoozing peacefully Cause only Hoover can make a tree While we keep leaning on a shovel

t

From nine to five we're laying Us down to sleep With a pickaze for an ancher And 17 awake we're staying We Con't count shap Our supervisor brings us a cup of Sanka

Sleeping beautios in a row Till five o'clock when whistles blow We're all tired out as heme we go So tired -- from leaning on a shovel!

BUT THEN S DANCE GRAVING BACK AND FORTH, TTC.

hen you look at things today Like Coulder Dam and TVA And all those play grounds where kids can play We did it - by leaning on a shovel

If you wonder how COC Plantod all the forests that we coe It isn't any mystery They did it - by leaning on a shovel

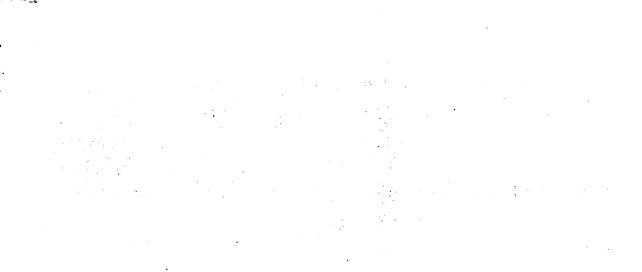

We didn't lift a finger To build the parks That you see in every city At home we always linger And read Karl Karx If you don't believe us - ask the Dies Committee Files of reads and highways, too

Although it may seen odd to you We did it - by leaning on a shovel

You politicians voting against our crew Can't you see folks getting wiser you ought to be a'toting a shovel, too the way you shovel up the same old fertilizer Let the papers have their say Let the elephant snore and the donkey bray If we can get things done this way Hurray! - for leaning on a shovel.

THE BALLAD OF UNCLE SAM

SCENE: )Kids playing on a path way in a Park.. Three or four girls play hop-scotch - several boys and girls play leap-from, etc. Trudy is seated on the grass - she reads a book)

FIRST BOY

(runs on)

Hey, Gang! Hore comes that funny looking old man again.

SECOND BOY

You mean Rip Van Winkle?

GIRLS

Aw, him??

CHIRD BOY

Come on, play ball! Forget him - he's been hanging around here for weeks.

(Uncle Sam enters - he wears an ordinary suit this time) (He looks tired and discouraged)

(Hesitates a moment and then sits on a rock down stage right.... The boys toss a ball)

BOY

Come on, you! Get off that rock!

BOY

Come on - let's throw him off.

(The boys throw the ball - trying to knock Uncle Sam's hat off. Trudy looks up as the boys throw the ball at Uncle Sam's head)

TRUDY You boys watch out-you'll hit that old man...

FIRST BOY

Yeah! Well, tell him to go somewhore else and sit down.

SECOND BOY

Yeah -- that's our rock.

GIRL

Go dow on - and mind you're business, Trudy.... (Off stage there is the sound of an ice cream peddler's wagon()

VOICE (Off Stage)

Ice cream! Ice Cream ! (The kids run off leaving Trudy and Uncle Sam alone) TRUDY

(To Uncle Sam) Don't mind them.

(Uncle Sam attempts to read) Wait -- your face looks familiar -- you look like my father -- no -- you're like Mr. Joe at the Drugstore. No -- like my teacher at school -- no -- Gosh you look like a lot of people all at once. Yes, I know you from somewhere. (Uncle Sam smiles and attempts to leave again) Don't go - please -- who are you? UNCLE SAM I am a lot of people-all at once. (He starts to go -- Tudy takes his arm) terre in the terre in the TRUDY A lot of people all at once. (thinks to herself) Who could that be? UNCLE SAM Well, they call me Uncle Sam. TRUDY Uncle Sam! (exciend) Hey kids! Hey kids! Here's Uncle Sam! (Boys and girls enter) BOYS AND GIRLS Uncle Sam? So what! Aw - that ain't Uncle Sam. TRUDY (Still holding Uncle Sam's arm) It isl It isl FIRST BOY Go on -- that guy aim't Uncle Sam. SECOND BOY He's just an old bum. THIRD BOY I'll bet he's one of the Smith brothers. GIRL Where is his red, white and blue pants?

Uncle Sam is not a real man.

TRUDY

I believe you Uncle Sam.

MALE VOICE SINGS

Old Uncle Sam is a lazy old man Washed his face in a frying pan Combed his hair with a Wagon Wheel

Died with a toothache in his heel.

(Boys and girls laughed)

TRUDY

That ain't no way to talk. Don't you know who Uncle Sam is?

GIRL

No.. who is he?

TRUDY

In "76" the sky was fed Thunder rumbling overhead Bad King George couldn't sleep in bed And on that stormy morn Ol' Uncle Sam was born.

BOYS & GIRLS

Some Birthday!

UNCLE SAM

Nobody who was anybody believed it Everybody who was anybody they doubted it Nobody had faith, nobody-CHORUS Nobody but Washington - Tom Paine, Nohn Adams,

Chaim Šolomon, Lafayette, John Adams, Ben Franklyn

TRUDY

THE Nobody's gave a Tea Party at Boston Betsy Ross organized a sewing circle. Paul Revere had a horse race.

UNCLE SAM

And a little ragged group believed it and some gentlemen and ladies believed it And some wise men And some fools And I believed it too And you know who I am ....

CHORUS

The Mister Tom Jefferson, A mighty fine man He wrote it down in a mighty fine plan And the rest all sign it with a mighty find han'.

MALE VOICE As they crossed their t's and dot their i's a brand new country did arise.

CHORUS

We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights. That among these rights are life-(Henery)-"Yes, Sir.) liberty (Muni - "That's right") and the pursuit of happiness.

TRUDY

Is that what they said?

UCNLE SAM

The very words.

TRUDY

That does sound mighty fine.

MALE VOICE

Building a nation is awful tough The people found the going rough And thirteen states weren't large enough So they started to expand Into the Western land.

UNCLE SAM

Still nobody who was anybody believed it Everybody who was anybody they stayed at home.

CHORUS

But Lewis and Clarke and the pioneers Drunk by hunger, Haunted by fears The Klondike Miners And the Forty-niners Some wanted freedom Some wanted riches Some liked to loaf While others dug ditches But they believed in it

UNCLE SAM

And I believed it too And youknow who I am.

GIRL

Maybe we do.

BOY

Yeah

FEMALE VOICE (Sings) Now Ole Abe Lincoln was thin and long His heart was high and his health was strong He hated oppresion, he hated wrong And he went down to his grave To free the slave

VIVIAN HOLT

Man in white skin can never be free. While his black skin brother is in slaveres

BOY

Yeah - that's history. But what about now?

age CHORUS The machine/appered with a great big roar And America grewy in peace and war As a million wheels went around and round The cities reached into the sky And dug down deep into the ground And some got rich and some got poor But the people carried through And so our country grew.

BOY Yeah - but who are you, Uncle Sam?

UNCLE SAM

I'm everybody who is nobody I'm anybody who is everybody

GIRL

What's you job anyway?

UNCLE SAM

Well I'm an engineer - musician - street chaner - merchant teacher ... (PEOPLE BEGIN TO QUESTION HIM AND HE ANSWERS) How about a farmer? .. ALSO .. Officer Clerk? Yes sir! Mechanic? That's right ... Housewife? Certainly .. Business Man? Yous aid it... Stenographer? Yes, Ma'am. Salesman? Absotively. Bartender? Posolutely. Truckdriver? Definitely....

Miner - seamstress - ditchdigger

All of them.... I am the etcetras and the andsoforths that do the work.

HART

What's your nationality?

UNCLE SAM

I'm just an IRISH .. NEGRO.. JEWISH.. ITALIAN.. FRENCH.. AND ENGLISH.. SPANISH.. RUSSIAN.. CHINESE.. POLISH.. SCOTCH.. HUNGARIAN .. LITVAK.. SWEDISH.. FINNISH.. CANADIAN.. GREKK AND TURK AND CZE CH* AND DOUBLE-CZECH AMERICAN.
